Any uncertainty about whether a Trustee's interest or duty is likely to give rise to a conflict shall be determined by a majority decision of the other Trustees taking part in the decision-making process.
21. If a Trustee's interest or duty gives rise (or could reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise) to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Company, he or she may participate in the decision-making process and may be counted in the quorum and vote unless:

27. If a person becomes a Member as a representative of an unincorporated association or body, the name of the Member, the name of the unincorporated association or body and the fact that the Member is its representative shall be entered in a register of Members.   - 30.1 on the expiry of at least seven clear days' notice given by him or her to the Company of his or her intention to withdraw;
  - 30.2 if any subscription or other sum payable by the Member to the Company is not paid on the due date and remains unpaid seven days after notice served on the Member by the Company informing him or her that he or she will be removed from membership if it is not paid. The Nominations Committee may recommend the re-admission to membership of any person removed from membership on this ground on his or her paying such reasonable sum as the Nominations Committee may determine;

- 30.3 if the Member, being an individual, has a bankruptcy order made against him or her or has an order made against him or her in individual insolvency proceedings in a jurisdiction other than England and Wales which have an effect similar to that of bankruptcy.

- 30.6 if at a meeting of the Trustees at which at least half of the Trustees are present, a resolution is passed resolving that the Member be expelled on the ground that his or her continued membership is harmful to or is likely to become harmful to the interests of the Company. Such a resolution shall not be passed unless the Member has been given at least 14 clear days' notice that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify expulsion, and has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of being heard by or of making written representations to the Trustees. A Member expelled by such a resolution shall nevertheless remain liable to pay to the Company any subscription or other sum owed by him or her.

Members' Meetings

31. Subject to the Act, the Company shall hold an annual general meeting once in every calendar year and not more than 15 months shall pass between one annual general meeting and the next. It shall be held at such time and place as the Trustees think fit.

The Trustees are required to call a general meeting once the Company has received a request to do so from Members who represent at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the Members having a right to vote at general meetings in accordance with Section 303 of the Act. If the Trustees fail to call a general meeting in these circumstances, the Members may themselves call a general meeting in accordance with Section 305 of the Act.

Notice of Members' Meetings

33. All general meetings must be called by either at least 14 clear days' notice or shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority of the Members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting. Any such majority shall together represent at least 90% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Members.
34. Every notice calling a general meeting shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted. If a special resolution is to be proposed the notice shall include the proposed resolution and specify that it is proposed as a special resolution.
35. Notice of general meetings shall be given to every Member, to the Trustees, to any President and Vice President, to any patron(s) and to the auditors of the Company.

If a quorum is not present in person or by Electronic Means within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the chair of the meeting may adjourn the meeting to such day, time and place (within 14 days of the original meeting) as he or she thinks fit and failing adjournment the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such day (within 14 days of the original meeting) time and place as the Trustees may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the Members present in person or by Electronic Means shall be a quorum.
37. A Trustee may, even if not a Member, attend and speak at any general meeting.

Chair

38. The Chair or in his or her absence the Vice-Chair or in his or her absence, or if there be no Chair or Vice-Chair, some other Trustee nominated by the Trustees shall preside as chair of the meeting, but if neither the Chair nor such other Trustee (if any) is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the Trustees present shall elect one of their number to be chair and, if there is only one Trustee present and willing to act, he or she shall be chair. If no Trustee is willing to act as chair, or if no Trustee is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chair.

Adjournment

39. The chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of the original meeting. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

Poll

40. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles. Subject to the Act, a poll may be demanded:

40.1 by the chair of the meeting; or

40.2 the Trustees; or

40.3 by at least three Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or

40.4 by a Member or Members representing at least one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting; and a demand by a person as proxy for a Member shall be the same as a demand by the Member.

41. Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

42. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn if the poll has not yet been taken and with the consent of the chair. A demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

43. A poll shall be taken as the chair directs and he or she may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

44. No poll shall be demanded on the election of the chair or on any question of adjournment. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chair directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

45. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

Votes

46. On a vote on a resolution which is carried out by a show of hands every Member present in person or by Electronic Means shall have one vote and a corporate Member may vote by its duly authorised representative.
47. On a vote on a resolution which is carried out by a poll every Member present in person or by Electronic Means or by proxy shall have one vote. A proxy need not be a Member.
48. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.
49. Whenever a Member has a personal interest in a matter to be discussed at a meeting, and whenever a Member has an interest in another organisation whose interests are reasonably likely to conflict with those of the Company in relation to a matter to be discussed at a meeting, he or she must declare an interest before discussion begins on the matter. Having declared an interest in the matter, the Member may not vote nor debate on the matter without in either case the permission of the majority of the Members present in person or in the case of a corporation by its authorised representative, at the meeting, such permission to be given or withheld without discussion.
50. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all monies presently payable by him or her to the Company have been paid.
51. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any person voting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final and binding.
52. A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting (including an authorised representative of a corporate Member) in person or by Electronic Means remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a form of proxy has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person. If the person casts a vote in such circumstances, any vote cast by the proxy is not valid.

Proxies

53. A Member (including a corporate Member) is entitled to appoint another person as his or her proxy to exercise all or any of his or her rights to attend and speak and vote at a meeting of the Company.
